None of the marriages performed in the counties of Virginia since December 12 are valid because of a law enacted that date which provided that all marriage licenses would be issued by the clerk of the circuit court provided by the new constitution. In ignorance of this law, the county clerks have continued to issue licenses.

Mr. Hugh Thompson and Miss Lila Alstott, well-known and popular young people of Powers, Casey county, drove to Danville last week and were married at the residence of Elder H. C. Garrison. While the wedding was not an elopement it will come in the nature of a pleasant surprise to the many friends of the principals. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Alstott and is one of the finest young women in every particular in all this county. She is noted for her sweet and amiable disposition. Mr. Thompson is a prominent young farmer and is in every way worthy of the prize he has won. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will leave in a few days for a short bridal tour South, after which they will return and make their home here. May happiness and prosperity attend them.

LILLIE MURPHY.

DO NOT DOSE THE STOMACH.

Care Catarrh by Nature's Own Method—Every Breath of Hyomei Brings Relief.

Nearly every one who has catarrh knows how foolish it is to try and cure it by dragging the stomach. Temporary relief may be given, but a cure seldom comes.

Until recently your physician would have said the only way to cure catarrh would be to have a change of climate; but now with Hyomei you can carry a health giving climate in your vest pocket and by breathing it a few minutes four times a day soon cure yourself.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00 and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. The inhaler lasts a life time, and if one bottle doesn't cure, an extra bottle of Hyomei can be obtained for 50 cents. It is the most economical of all remedies advertised for the cure of catarrh, and is the only one that follows nature in her method of treating diseases of the respiratory organs.

G. L. Penny has sold a great many Hyomei outfits and the more he sells the more convinced he is that he is perfectly safe in guaranteeing to refund the money if Hyomei does not cure.

John B. Chenault, State Insurance Commissioner, and his brother-in-law, Elson Gay, of Clark, have purchased a well-stocked and improved farm in Virginia containing 2,100 acres for $25,000. Mr. Chenault will remove to Virginia after the expiration of his term of office.

A Frightened Horse

Running like mad down the street dashing the occupants, or a 100 other accidents, are every day occurrences. It behooves everybody to have a reliable Salve handy and there's none as good as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Burns, Cuts, Sores, Eczema and Piles disappear quickly under its soothing effect. 25c. by all Druggists.

The year book of the Carnegie Institution will show assets of $10,101,500 and a balance in the treasury on Nov. 1 last of $445,472.

Skinner is waiting for more propitious weather for his business before returning to Silesburg.

About 2:30 A. M., Dec. 29th, John S. Goode passed into the great beyond. Complaining to his loving wife after supper of a pain in his head, he retired about 8 o'clock and in a few moments was sleeping soundly. About 2 o'clock he changed his position and breathing unusually hard, awoke his wife, who called him and failing to get a reply from her third call, she jumped quickly to his side with that tenderness born only of a loving and faithful wife whose heart, soul and time had been wrapped in his existence, to find that his spirit without a struggle had flown. His generous sympathies for his friends, and they were legion, reached far beyond the confines of the ordinary man. When he was your friend you knew it. He would never forsake a friend in sorrow. When adversity loads with miseries and wretchedness is complete, his friendship held the closer. A large concourse of sorrowing friends attended the funeral and burial here Wednesday at 2 P. M.

LANCASTER.

The water works are about completed. The lake is holding perfectly. Ten feet of water is in it although very little rain has fallen.

The courts day crowd, while not large brought considerable trade to town on Monday. Belated Christmas buyers constituted the main purchasers. Little stock trading was done.

Mr. R. H. Bateson, long a citizen of this place, is preparing to make an extended visit to the West. He will leave in February for Indian Territory and it is probable he will locate there.

Trade for two weeks before Christmas was very good. Almost all the merchants carrying holiday goods have sold completely out and some will have to order more goods to carry in stock during the ensuing year.

Miss Margaret Kinnaird entertained Monday evening. She is a petite beauty just coming into Lancaster society, but she entertained in the graceful and altogether charming way. Many were her guests and all were delighted. Fully entertained.

Thursday evening was the Xmas hop, an annual entertainment given by the railroad young gentlemen of Lancaster. The music was delightful, the ladies lovely; this and the gallantry of the gentlemen made the occasion all that it should have been.

In this hospitable home all is brightness and joy, and guests feel on entering the door that welcome that insures a delightful time. Lovely refreshments were served and the hours were only too short for so much pleasure.

The Milk Maids Convention was a success in every way. The house was filled with well dressed people, and the young ladies taking part in the convention looked very beautiful in their costumes. The selling of the milk maid's stools was a part of the entertainment and very much enjoyed. Mr. Bradford was auctioneer and some of the stools sold for several dollars each. The test of the water works, which has been looked forward to with interest by our citizens was made Wednesday. It was eminently satisfactory. It was shown that a pressure of 80 pounds lifted a stream to the top of and over the three story bank. Later a pressure of 150 pounds was made, the stream going over the court house 1,000 feet of hose has been ordered. This will cost 70c per foot and then Lancaster will be safe from the fire flood. It was found that in all the piping only two small leaks existed. This is a remarkable thing, as it is natural for them to occur in the laying of so much pipe. The water in the lake is clear and sparkling and all things considered the water works are more than satisfactory so far.

BISHOP LUDDIN, of the Catholic Diocese at Syracuse, N. Y., most vigorously condemns the teaching of the Santa Claus myth to children. But as the old fellow doubtless never had any children and never enjoyed the delight that a parent feels in witnessing the joy of their offspring on a Christmas morning after a visit from Santa Claus, he is not the proper person to give advice on the subject. There is nothing much sweeter in life than the Santa Claus delusion and he is almost a fiend who would deny children the pleasure of it.

IN an interview while he was visiting Louisville friends Perry Heath, secretary of the national republican committee, said it was President McKinley's last wish and his conviction that Marcus A. Hanna should and would succeed him as President. Mr. Heath said further in effect that, while Mr. Hanna did not seek the office of President, he would accept the nomination and that his business interests were such now that he could accept any governmental position.

WE are confident that Mr. A. C. Dunn, of this county, will be elected door-keeper of the House at Frankfort and if there is a man in the State who is deserving of reward it is Mr. Dunn. He has always been a hard worker for his party and the lamented Goebel and Gov. Beckham had no warmer supporters than he. It is the first time that Mr. Dunn has ever offered for office and we sincerely hope his ambition will be realized.

LINCOLN county has not furnished a democratic Congressman since 1828. Is there any wonder that Hon. Harvey Helm's friends are anxious to see him nominated? It is Lincoln county's time, she offers the right kind of timber and by the eternal her entry is going to win.

THERE is an easier feeling among American people generally, the world moves more smoothly and even the cold winter breezes are softer since Dowle, the self-styled Elijah 2nd, has shaken the dust from his feet and departed for Australia. There let him stay.

NEW YEAR GREETING!

To my Friends, Customers and Acquaintances. I wish you all a Happy, Fruitful New Year; a year of plenty and a year as free as possible from disappointment and trouble. I wish you all this and more, and why shouldn't I? You have been loyal to me and again have made the past year a very prosperous one, for which I know I am grateful and shall try to show my gratitude by courteous treatment to all. I shall do my utmost this year to please you and still merit your confidence. Once more I extend to you all an invitation to make my place of business your home when in town. I keep a good fire in Winter; ice water, Winter and Summer. Writing paper, postal cards and stamps every day in the year, all of which is as free to my friends as the wind that blows.

TOTTEN.—Mrs. James L. Totten died at her home of pneumonia and heart trouble Monday night. She had been sick only a week and was conscious up to the time of her death. She was a devoted member of the Christian church and a devout christian. Besides the grief-stricken husband, three daughters, a son and an aged mother are left to mourn her loss. The burial occurred in Buffalo cemetery at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon after services at the grave by Rev. J. W. Hagin. SEVERANCE & SONS.—This well-known and popular firm will branch out considerably about Feb. 1st, or sooner. The store-room now occupied by the Grand Leader has been leased for a term of years by them and they will greatly increase each of the many lines of goods carried. Raney will have charge of the present store, where he will be ably assisted by efficient salesladies. Mr. Raney is one of the most popular salesmen in this section and he and Mr. Will Severance make a team that is hard to beat. This popular firm will add a big line of carpets, matting, etc., and the up stairs over the new store will be a most excellent place to show them. For many years Severance & Sons have enjoyed the confidence of the public and a liberal patronage as well and they will make a bigger bid for it during the year just begun than ever. Keep your eye on their "ad" in this paper and it will be time well spent.

J. M. ALVERSON, democratic Representative elect from Lincoln county, was at the Grand yesterday. Asked the significance of his visit to Cincinnati, Mr. Alverson said: "I am here to meet some friends who are interested in the candidacy of Aurelius C. Dunn, of Lincoln, for doorkeeper of the Kentucky House of Representatives. And what do I think of his chances? He will win out sure. What about the race for the democratic nomination for Congress in our district? The race seems to be made up between Harvey Helm, of Lincoln county; incumbent Congressman G. G. Gilbert, of Shelby, and Colonel Dan L. Moore, of Mercer. Mr. Helm I believe is a sure winner. He is one of the best politicians in the State, able, alert and always active in party work, and when it comes to mingling with the masses he is a twin brother to Senator James B. McCreary. He will show his mettle in the race, and if he is elected to Congress will not disappoint the expectations of his constituents, for he is eloquent, of commanding presence and a Chesterfield in address. In the race for the nomination I think it will be Helm first and the rest also ran." Mr. Alverson is connected with the INTERIOR JOURNAL, published at Stanford, one of the most influential papers in Central Kentucky.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

THE Odd Fellows elected the following officers Tuesday night: W. H. Rigney, Noble Grand; John Underwood, Vice Grand; Ed Wilkinson, Secretary; J. T. Harris, Treasurer. The Macabees elected John M. Stone, Commander; H. C. Wray, Lieut. Commander; John Engleman, Sergeant; A. C. Sine, Record Keeper.

OUR Ottenheim letter says that a German named Ollice shot and killed John Cummins and badly wounded William Todd, but as no arrests have been made we think there must be a mistake about the matter. The trouble is said to have occurred in the Soper section back of Ottenheim, where there is no telephone connection.

THE First National and Lincoln County National Banks, of this place, had not held their meetings when we went to press, but we were reliably informed that each institution would declare the usual three per cent semi-annual dividend. The Hustonville National declared 5 per cent, and the Crab Orchard Banking Co. will declare three per cent.

CASWELL SAUFLEY, youngest son of Judge M. C. Saufley, of this place, received an appointment to the Naval Academy at Annapolis as a Christmas present from Congressman G. G. Gilbert. He will stand the examination in March. Mr. Saufley is a fine young man, a hard student and that he will make his mark some day, none who know him well have a doubt. He is a chip off of the old block and not only does he resemble his father in brilliancy but in appearance.

OUR Hustonville letter tells of the death of Mr. John S. Goode, one of the most substantial citizens of the West End. No man in his section did more for the upbuilding of Hustonville than did Mr. Goode and none there were who loved the old place better. He was a pillar of the town, so to speak, and his death has caused a vacancy that will indeed be hard to fill. A loving wife, but no children survive, and in her sorrow she weeps not alone. May He who doeth all things well comfort the widow in her terrible affliction.
